The College of Fine Arts (CFA) Emerging Leaders Program is seeking to hire two undergraduate Student Ambassadors for employment beginning April 2017, through May 2018. The Emerging Leaders Ambassadors Program gives students an opportunity to gain experience in areas related to arts administration. Ambassadors assist with duties related to day-to-day operations within the College, to act as a conduit for information, contribute as guest writers on the Finer points Blog, assist with First-year Orientation, regularly communicate with students, faculty, and staff, and keep community calendars up to date with College of Fine Arts events.

There are two Emerging Leaders Ambassador positions available. Ambassadors must be available to work 10 hrs/week in the summer, as well as 10 hrs/week during the fall and spring semesters. To be qualified, you should possess the following attributes:

- Professionalism
- Flexible availability
- Attention to detail
- Time management skills
- Strong communication skills
- Ability to work independently

In addition to this application, please submit the following:

- Resume
- Cover letter
- A writing sample 300-500 words in length describing a CFA event you have attended or participated in and what the significance of that event was.
- Academic or Work References (2):
  - Name, title, relationship to you, and contact information
